Bills of lading, manifests, driver's logs, invoices, receipts...

At high volumes, they pile up and create a time-consuming, error-prone process that slows your business down. This is when DATAMARK, a leading specialist in document processing, can step in to handle the load.

With over 20 years of experience in the freight and transportation industry, we understand the business-critical nature of your company's data and its impact on your performance and customer service.

DATAMARK[®]
INCORPORATED

Discover why some of the country's top overnight couriers and LTL carriers choose DATAMARK for their document processing needs:

Quality and Accuracy

DATAMARK leverages optical character recognition technologies and manual data entry, with staff trained specifically for your process, to guarantee minimum accuracy levels of 99.8 percent on all data fields entered.

Turn-Around Time

With locations in the U.S., Mexico and India, DATAMARK delivers around-the-clock processing services. Turn-around times can be reduced from days to hours, decreasing your receivables cycle and increasing your cash flow.

Productivity

Using Lean and Six Sigma methodologies DATAMARK's project team will improve efficiency and eliminate wasteful tasks. Outsourcing your document processing to DATAMARK will allow you to focus time and resources on your core business: delivering freight to customers.

Security

DATAMARK places the highest priority on the security of your documents and data. Our physical facilities, networks, data centers and employee screening are designed to meet strict information security requirements.

Profitability

Our goal is to ensure that your outsourcing venture is a success, with an unmistakable positive impact on your company's income. Our ability to improve the "bottom line" is one of the main reasons we maintain an average client relationship of 12 years.

Seamless Transition

To ensure a smooth and seamless transition, we rely on our Evolution Solution, a proven, step-by-step project implementation plan. Our transition process addresses questions about data security, employee options and outsourcing locations.
